

Mr. Kevin Wolf

Partner

Akin Gump Strauss Hauer and Feld, LLP

For nearly 25 years, Mr. Wolf has focused his practice on the law, policy, and administration of export control and related foreign direct investment issues. From 2010 to 2017, he was the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Export Administration. In this role, he was primarily responsible for the policy and administration of the U.S. dual-use export control system and, as a result of the Export Control Reform effort he helped lead, part of the defense trade system. He was before this committee, its staff, and members several times. Mr. Wolf was also during this time a Commerce Department representative to the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS). He is now a partner in the international trade group of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP.
